

Item no. 2 on the agenda of the General Meeting

Curriculum Vitae of Mr. Gabriel Eichler, Candidate to Supervisory Board

Mr. Eichler studied economics and international relations, and has degrees from Brandeis University, The University of Chicago, and the University of Toronto.

He began his international banking career at Bank of America, where he spent 15 years (1975–1990), half of it at the bank's headquarters in the US (his last position was Chief International Economist) and half as regional General Manager of Bank of America in Paris, Vienna and Frankfurt. After leaving Bank of America, Mr. Eichler spent a year as a partner and Executive Vice-President (EVP) in a US private equity group.

From 1994 to 1998, Mr. Eichler was Vice-Chairman of the Management Board and, until the end of 1996, CFO of ČEZ. In 1998–2001, he was Chairman of the Management Board, President & CEO of Východoslovenské železiarne (VSŽ). Mr. Eichler also acted as the Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Československá obchodní banka, and as a member of the Supervisory Boards of Česká pojišťovna and Slovenská sporiteľňa.

Until September 2016, Mr. Eichler was the Vice-Chairman (earlier Executive Chairman) of the AVG Technologies Supervisory Board. Mr. Eichler helped bring AVG Technologies, as the first Central European company, to the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). He was also a member of the Board of Ness Technologies (a company traded on the NASDAQ stock exchange).

Apart from his position as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of MONETA Money Bank, he is the founder and a director of Benson Oak spol. s r.o., originally a boutique investment bank, later a private equity group, that he founded in August 1991. Currently, he is also Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Vaclav Havel Library, a member of the Advisory Council at the Division of Social Sciences of the University of Chicago and until recently Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the International School of Prague.
